

Stephanie Miller-Brathwaite Educator & Counselor

Stephanie Miller-Brathwaite currently serves as an educator/counselor with the Chicago Public School district. Her previous professional experience includes 13 years in the social service field in the area of mental health where she served as treatment team coordinator.

Stephanie serves in several ministry capacities as a member of Calvary Baptist Church Chicago where she is able to teach biblical studies, teach dance and coordinate several annual youth events. Stephanie currently serves as the Board President of Global Girls, Inc. which is a performing arts organization on the south side of Chicago established in the year 2000 with a focus on socially conscious youth-driven theatre. Stephanie had the opportunity to travel to Mombasa, Kenya with Global Girls in 2016 in partnership with the Mombasa Relief Initiative to help facilitate programming where girls in 3 schools were provided with arts education to help them use their voices to combat their daily struggles. As a mother of a teen girl, the oldest of 7 siblings, an aspiring author and business owner, Stephanie understands the significance of providing resources, skills, encouragement and advocacy to youth throughout the city of Chicago and abroad.
